

ASO Teaming Up With MBHS's Trombonists

It's only seven trombones, but that won't dampen the excitement at the Alabama Symphony Pops opening night. The ASO teams up with the Mountain Brook High School Band, Summerfest Musical Theatre and The Birmingham Concert Chorale in a special one-night only performance of Meredith Willson's "The Music Man."

The concert starts at 8 p.m. on Sept. 23 at the BJCC Concert Hall. Broadway stars Jim Walton and Christiane Noll will headline the spectacular performance, which also will feature top local performers Tam Debolt and Mickey Ferguson.

Seven members of the Mountain Brook High School Marching Band trombone section practice with fellow cast members from Meredith Willson's "The Music Man," including actors Evan McCarty and Nicole Lamb.

Photo special to The Journal